

FOR Lard Presses, Lard Cans, Meat Cutters, Meat Saws, Butcher Knives, Butcher Steels GO TO Buck's Cash Hardware.

The Best Line of Up-to-Date Stoves can be seen at
Buck's Cash Hardware
Leader in Low Prices.

The Tribune.

HENDRICKS & GILLESPIE,
PUBLISHERS.

Advertisements to appear in THE TRIBUNE must be in before Tuesday noon to insure their appearance in the issue of that week.

Plymouth, Ind., November 17, 1904.

LOCAL NEWS

Charles Fogel left for Bradford, Pennsylvania Thursday to remain permanently.

Dry goods, shoes, boots and rubbers 10 per cent off at George Eckerts, Linkville, Ind. 6t3

S. B. Yoder of Bourbon township, is one of the happy republicans who visited Plymouth Thursday.

There was a light vote polled in Plymouth and Center township, and democrats say they are glad of it.

Mrs. John W. Thomas and her niece Miss Sadie Thomas, have gone to Warsaw for a visit of a week with Mrs. Brewer.

Polk seems to be the banner township of the county; in addition to electing J. M. Schroeder trustee by 107 majority it gave Roosevelt a majority of 80, a republican gain of 140.

Don't fail to get your dinner at Albert's Hall next Tuesday, Nov. 22nd. A splendid menu for 25c. There will be on sale many fancy articles and in the evening a musical program and refreshments. Reformed Christian Endeavor.

Omer Senour aged about 45 years, died at his home in Bourbon Tuesday night, after a long illness. He resided for many years between Inwood and Bourbon. Dr. Reynolds had been to visit him and was returning home when he was struck by the fast mail train and killed. Mr. Senour leaves a widow and three children.

Henry Bergman came up from Kokomo Wednesday and visited over night with his parents. Henry said there seemed to be no democrats in Kokomo except himself and he told them he would come up to Marshall county where democrats always had a big majority but when he got here he found democrats feeling worse than they did in Kokomo.

Mrs. Spaeth, mother of Mrs. George Krueyer, died at her home in Valparaiso, 1 Thursday night.

Dr. Stephens was elected coroner by 30 votes. He received 2930 votes to 2900 for Dr. Kyser.

David E. Vanactor beats Percy Troyer 239 votes for surveyor, instead of sixteen as first reported.

Ezra Barnhill, who has been very badly afflicted with rheumatism for more than a year, is not much improved.

Let us hope that the republican party will try to deserve the generous treatment it has received from the voters.

The jury in the O'Shea murder trial at Chicago disagreed, and it is probable that he will never be punished for the murder of his wife.

Mrs. A. M. Quivey has returned to her home at Lafayette after a visit of several days with her niece, Mrs. Durr and other relatives in Plymouth.

Argos citizens have pledged the required amount to defray the cost of a survey for the South Bend-Logansport line through Walnut township.

Henry Israel of Argos and Miss Carrie Gates of Chicago were married Sunday, November 6, at the home of the bride, 881 Oakly Avenue, in that city.

Dr. Hurtv of the state board of health, is authority for the statement that the small pox epidemic will be more severe in Indiana this winter than for many years.

S. N. Stevens has resigned as county attorney, but his place has not been filled by the commissioners and will continue to act until the next term of the commissioner's court in December.

Miss Hattie Graham, formerly of Inwood, but recently residing in South Bend, passed through Plymouth Friday on her way to Kansas, having decided to make that state her home.

Mrs. Mueller went to Elkhart Friday and after a visit of three or four weeks with her daughter there, she will go to New York to spend the winter with her daughter in that city.

The effects of the heavy snow storm in the west were felt in Plymouth Friday when the mercury dropped to twelve degrees below freezing, but the bright sunshine soon warmed the atmosphere.

Miles Vanactor went to Laporte to visit over Sunday with his son in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Gillespie will occupy the Thayer residence on South Michigan street.

Mrs. Draper, of McLean county, Illinois, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. R. Miller, at Donaldson.

Mrs. Sarah L. Smith, for many years the leading milliner at Waiketen, died Tuesday aged 72 years.

Mrs. Jacob Seider has returned to Elkhart, after a visit of a week with relatives and friends in this county.

Melvin G. Field who has been spending the summer in North Dakota, returned to his home in this city Friday evening.

Ohio gives Roosevelt over 240,000 majority. We give this as local news because more than 1000 Ohio people reside in this vicinity.

Mrs. John Profit arrived from South Bend Saturday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Zumbaugh of Green township.

Roosevelt's majority in Missouri, according to complete returns, excepting two counties, will be 23,228. In the same counties Folk has a majority of 32,000.

The democrats elected four state senators in the entire state of Indiana, and only thirteen members of the lower house, Daniel McDonald being the thirteenth member.

Elias Sherer was beaten 34 votes for assessor of Center township by John Weissert, but Mr. Sherer has no reason to feel bad. He ran ahead of the state and county ticket and was beaten because of the large democratic majority in this township.

Mrs. Sallie Deemer brought to our office a rose that was blooming out of doors on the 10th of November. It was not a monthly rose but one of the hardy varieties that bloomed in June and bloomed a second time in October and November.

Peter Messner died at his home northeast of Bourbon Monday morning, at four o'clock from typhoid fever and an abscess on the lung, aged 73 years. Funeral services were held at the home Wednesday and interment in Stony Point Cemetery.

Mrs. Mary Reynolds went to Culver Friday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Brenner. Mrs. Brenner has been seriously ill for several weeks suffering from diseases incident to old age and general debility, and Mr. Brenner is now reported ill.

Attorneys Kelly, Peters and Robbins of Knox are here on the John B. Jayne ditch most of which is in Oregon township Starke county. The case was brought here on change of venue and has occupied the court since the election. It will probably not be concluded before Friday.

John Allen Shunk, for many years an attorney of Plymouth and well known throughout Marshall county, was elected prosecuting attorney of Miami county. The office is worth $2000 a year in that county and Mr. Shunk's hundreds of friends in Marshall county extend congratulations.

Mr. Weaver residing east of the Maple Grove church got his finger caught in a corn shredder Friday just as the machine was starting and the end of the finger was taken off and his hand badly lacerated. Had the machine been in full motion his arm would have been taken off.

It is reported that Hering said after his speech here: "I am entirely confident that I will win. Two weeks ago I believed I had only a fighting chance, but things have so shaped themselves since then that I have every reason to expect victory. I expect to carry St. Joe county by a big majority. The organization there is in fine condition." St. Joseph county gave Brick 3000 majority.

The republicans of Indiana, besides sweeping the state and national tickets by overwhelming majorities, have gained two new members to congress, and have increased their working majority in the legislature. John C. Shaney defeated Congressman Miers in the Second district, carrying every county with the exception of Sullivan. Newton W. Gilbert goes to congress from the Twelfth district with a plurality of about 3000.

The man who doesn't consider it worth while to go to the polls because "one vote won't make any difference" got another rebuke Tuesday. If any one of a hundred men in this township who stayed at home had come out and voted, the township trusteeship would have been settled without question. A good many people argue that a man who does not appreciate the right of suffrage enough to exercise it should be disfranchised.—Bremen Enquirer.

Mrs. Sallie Deemer of this city was looking over some old papers this week and found a commission signed by Governor James Whitcomb in September 1844, over 60 years ago, commissioning her father Charles Brown, justice of the peace. The document is well preserved and the ink was good because the signature of Governor Whitcomb is a legible as if it had been written a month ago. Mr. Brown was one of the first settlers of Walnut township, coming there in 1837.

Charles Smith, of Lapaz, is visiting relatives in Kosciusko county.

George and Lawrence Beehler have gone to Niles, Michigan to work.

Miss Geneva Carr of Inwood went to South Bend to the commercial college today.

Debs had 469 votes in Elkhart county and all except 50 were cast in the city of Elkhart.

Rev. Crowder and C. T. Mattingly went to St. Louis Monday to visit the fair for a few days.

L. Stininger of Kosciusko county, visited over Sunday with his daughter, Mrs. Charles Long.

John Gangloff, of Kirby, Ohio, one of our valued subscribers, sends us a renewal order this week.

H. B. Flora, proprietor of the south side grocery, who has been sick for several weeks is improving.

Fred Shoemaker and N. F. Rockhill went to Larwill Monday to take treatment for rheumatism.

Thursday Nov. 24 is Thanksgiving day, and Governor Durbin has issued the proclamation accordingly.

Miss Inez Smith of Tiosa, visited over Sunday with the family of her uncle, George Machlan east of town.

Even old Shelby county, the Gibraltar of Indiana democracy was swept from its moorings in the Tuesday avalanche.

More than a score of young men from the central part of the state changed cars here today for Valparaiso to attend school.

Stewart Hughes, residing west of Plymouth, is assisting in the closing out sale of the Noland Bros. stock of goods at Tippecanoe.

Miss Catherine Dalrymple took her brother, William Dalrymple, to Howard county today where he will make his home with his sister.

Mrs. G. W. Matthews has returned to her home at South Bend after a visit of two weeks with the family of D. E. Snyder in this city.

John Wjdmann and family are moving from near Monterey this week to the farm Mr. Wjdmann purchased just northeast of Plymouth.

It is a great year for the observance of Thanksgiving. Even democrats have much to be thankful for, though the election did fail to go their way.

Charles Jandervin and Miss Emma Wareham of Lapaz, were married at the M. E. parsonage in this city Saturday afternoon by Rev. J. S. Crowder.

Judge Howard, of South Bend, ex-chief justice of the supreme court of Indiana, is trying a case as special judge at the court house this afternoon.

Mrs. Kintzel of Mentone, has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Elijah Stansbury and her son, Charles Kintzel in this city, during the past two weeks.

Elmer Thrash, who is attending the South Bend commercial college visited over Sunday with the family of his uncle in the northeast corner of Green township.

J. M. Heminger received a telegram Monday announcing the death of his mother, Mrs. Lydia A. Heminger at Nappanee. Her age was ninety years and she was well known in this county.

The eastern and southeastern states were in the clutch of a bad storm of sleet and snow Sunday. Many cities suffered damage and telephones and telegraph communication was cut off in many places.

Josiah Geiselman, residing on South Michigan street, has been quite ill with heart trouble for several days. He is one of the old settlers in Marshall county and built one of the first houses in Bremen.

Sohuyler Fairbanks of Green township was in Plymouth Friday looking after the property he recently purchased where Upton Stansbury for many years raised his fine chickens. Mr. Fairbanks will move to Plymouth next week.

Mrs. J. Q. Kline and daughter, Miss Clara Keesey went to Deedsville Monday where they will reside during the coming year. Rev. J. Q. Kline having been transferred from Donaldson to the Macy and Deedsville circuit. They are an excellent family that Marshall county regrets to lose.

Walter C. Bailey, of Peru, visited over Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Benedict and his brother, W. E. Bailey and other relatives here. Mr. Bailey is a prominent republican attorney and says he was as much surprised as the democrats when Miami county elected the entire republican ticket.

Aaron Worth, who is generally conceded the best Wesleyan preacher in Indiana, preached at Maple Grove Saturday and Sunday and left for his home at Bryan, Jay county, today. He goes to Greensboro, N. C. Wednesday to attend the North Carolina conference of his church and visit relatives, one of whom has been governor of North Carolina and another is state treasurer, but Aaron says he is not much behind Governor Worth, for he was once a prohibition candidate for governor of Indiana, which is the worst thing this paper knows about the old preacher.

There was snow in South Carolina Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Petcher are visiting at Bourbon this week.

H. D. Vanscoik, of Marion, Kansas, is visiting relatives in this county.

B. F. Wilson has gone to Kokomo where he has secured employment. Stephen Staley is visiting his daughter, Mrs. A. J. Carey at Marion, this week.

Rev. N. H. Sheppard spent Monday at Lake Maxinkuckee and shot two ducks.

Rev. W. S. Howard is attending the Episcopal diocesan convention at South Bend.

Mrs. E. Tascher, of the green house, is visiting at South Bend and Mishawaka this week.

Mrs. Mary Smith arrived Tuesday from Lima, Ohio, to visit her mother, Mrs. P. E. Sarber, southwest of this city.

Dr. Burkett left for West Tennessee Tuesday on his annual hunting expedition. He will be gone about two weeks.

Ed. V. Koontz is at Indianapolis this week as a delegate to the grand lodge I. O. O. F. which convened in that city today.

Mrs. John Birkhold, who has been seriously ill for sometime with bronchial and throat trouble, is now in a critical condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carl came up from Logansport Saturday for a visit of two days with the family of Mrs. Charles Woodbury.

B. F. Anders, wife and daughter, have returned to Kingsbury, Laporte county, after a visit of several days with relatives at Inwood.

Alva Porter, recorder elect, was in Plymouth Tuesday. He will take his office January 1, and expects to move to Plymouth within three or four weeks.

Fred Woodward of South Bend, has been appointed marshal of this congressional district to collect the returns or vote for presidential electors in the district.

W. H. Young went to St. Louis Tuesday on business, which will require his attention for several days and incidentally he will visit the world's fair if he gets time.

Elkhart county with its 572 votes for Debs, 721 for Swallow, 21 for Watson and 32 for Stoner shows a remarkable total of voters "shooting in the air" in that county.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mackay and Mrs. Schwartzkopf of Valparaiso, visited here today and went from here to Indianapolis to attend the grand lodge of Odd Fellows.

Rev. A. Wilder of Bremen, stopped in Plymouth Tuesday on his way to Logansport to attend the conference of the Lutheran church which is in session in that city this week.

A prominent Plymouth democrat says the election returns seem to indicate that the people of the United States do not think two political parties are necessary in a republic.

W. E. Bates, one of the prosperous farmers of the Bourbon neighborhood was in the city yesterday on his way home from Chicago, where he had been on a business deal. Mr. Bates made the Tribune office a pleasant call.

Hon. H. G. Thayer went to Chicago this morning to take electrical treatment. He has been sick almost six months and gets but little relief. His hundreds of friends sincerely hope that the electrical treatment will restore his health.

Mesdames H. G. Thayer, John Elain, T. J. Winings, S. M. Shakes, W. H. Young, C. A. Reeve and Misses Georgia and Bessie Vinall, Charlotte Suselund, Maggie Steckman and Mary Schlarb went to South Bend Tuesday to attend the Episcopal diocesan convention.

J. Frank Hanly, of Lafayette, will be inaugurated as governor on Monday, January 9. He will receive a salary of $8,000 per annum, the last legislature having increased the gubernatorial pay, and will be the first incumbent of the office to receive that amount.

Wolcottville, Lagrange county, is a dry town, the three saloons there having closed on Monday. The temperance people of the town filed a blanket remonstrance against the applicants and the licenses were refused. The saloons in the small towns in Lagrange county are all being closed.

The Warsaw Times says a deer, weighing 300 pounds was shot in the woods seven miles west of Warsaw last Thursday. The deer was seen crossing the road by a rural mail carrier who informed the neighborhood, and the woods into which the deer ran was surrounded and the animal was shot.

Mabel Clarke, who together with Kirby Hough of South Bend and Lulu Houghton o Plymouth was struck by a Grand Trunk passenger train at Lafayette street at South Bend several months ago, resulting in Miss Hough's instant death and serious injuries to the other two, has filed suit in the circuit court against the railway company, asking for damages in the sum of $5,000.

A Matter of Health

There is a quality in Royal Baking Powder which makes the food more digestible and wholesome. This peculiarity of Royal has been noted by physicians, and they accordingly endorse and recommend it.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

S. F. Hitchcock and family are visiting at Bourbon today.

For Rent and For Sale cards ready printed at the Tribune office.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Head are the happy parents of a girl baby.

Mrs. LaBrash has gone to Piano, Ill., for a visit of a week or more.

Joseph Coar, of Bourbon township, spent the afternoon at South Bend.

C. A. Reeve and Hon. M. A. O. Packard were South Bend visitors today.

The retail merchants of Ft. Wayne have cut out the trading stamp business.

A. J. Metsker of Monticello, Ind., is visiting his son, the editor of the Democrat.

Rev. Mr. Sanders and wife, of Columbia City, visited Mrs. Garrett in this city Wednesday.

Postmaster Yockey will occupy the Judge Capron property on North Michigan street.

Lest you forget this will remind you of the musicale and sale at the opera house Thursday eve.

Claude Soice, who was a soldier in the Philippines and has traveled extensively throughout the world, returned home this week.

The clerk of the Indianapolis Juvenile court brought four boys to Brightside Tuesday evening.

A. B. White has gone to Pewaukee, Wis., and has ordered the Tribune sent to his new address.

Miss Eva Fowler of this city, has gone to Grand Rapids, Mich., to remain during the winter.

Mrs. Harry Keibert and son are going to Los Angeles, California next week to spend the winter.

Rosetta Swihart was granted a divorce from Nathan Swihart in the circuit court Tuesday evening.

Miss Lola Everly has gone to Warsaw to spend the remainder of the week with Miss Lulu Helpman.

Rockett advanced the price of coal all three cents to get back the money that did not elect Parker.

Seats are now on sale at Shadel's drug store for A. W. Martin's big production of Uncle Tom's Cabin.

Take course tickets to Shadel's after Friday at 9 a. m. and get reserved seats for Earl R. Drake Co., under auspices of the Muzart Club.

C. A. Spittler, the feed store man in the Brink block, has leased the Frown barn and expects to do a good business feeding and stabling horses this winter.

WELBORN & SON

Proprietors of The Turner Meat Market,

Keep constantly on hand the very best Fresh Meats of all kinds, and the best of all Smoked and Dried Meats at the Very Lowest Prices.

Your Patronage Solicited.

PHONE 55.

PLYMOUTH, INDIANA.

Music and Musical Instrument Sale!

As I have lived in Marshall county 25 years, and am now running the largest Music and Musical Instrument Store, I will convince the people by the following prices that I will not be run out by foreign competition, and will sell this week only:

8 sheets of 25c Music for.....	$1 00
20 sheets of 10c Music for.....	1 00
40 sheets of 5c Music for.....	1 00
Farrand or Cottage Organs, formerly sold at $70.00 now	$60 00
" " " " " " " " " " " "	60.00 " 50 00
" " " " " " " " " " " "	50.00 " 40 00
" " " " " " " " " " " "	40.00 " 30 00

For the next few days I will sell any of the Highest Grade Pianos made on the installment plan for less money than they have ever been sold for cash. If you ever expect to buy now is your time.

CHAS. H. WALLACE, MUSIC DEALER.

The When Grocery

WILL CALL YOUR ATTENTION that the election is over, if you don't know it. We have lots of good things to eat at our place, we don't want to keep them, we want to sell them—Raisins, Nuts, Oranges, Canned Goods of all kinds, Buckwheat Flour, Maple Syrup, Chase & Sanborn's Club House Coffees and Teas, Cranberries, Sweet Potatoes, Olives—anything that you may want in this line we have it.

We thank you all for your patronage in the past year and kindly ask you to call again.

Yellow Front on Laporte Street.

ED. S. HOGARTH & CO.

These Mornings are Chilly

YOU have noticed this, of course. It reminded me that I ought to tell you that there are a lot of heavy warm suitings here that will keep somebody comfortable this winter. The idea that I have in mentioning them is that some people may want to be among the first to have their suits delivered. It's easy. If you'll leave your order soon, we'll soon leave your suit. You can't bother me by looking.

J. E. BERGMAN, THE TAILOR.

..NOW..

Greatest November Sale In Our History

ALLMAN'S, The Big Store, PLYMOUTH, IND.

A Few of the November Sale Bargains:

18c Table Oilcloths 2 yds for.....	27c
10c Crash Toweling at per yd.....	4 1/2c
$17.00 and $12.50 Suits or Overcoats for Men at.....	$9.50
Fine Laces, worth from 4c to 7 a yd., at.....	2c
$1.25 Dress Goods, per yd.....	.88c
Best four-yard wide Linoleum at.....	$1.90
Excellent Rag Carpet per yd.....	.23c
Men's Gray Duck Coats at.....	.80c
$1.25 Finest yard-wide Black Silk at.....	.95c
60c and 70c Dress Goods at, per yd.....	.45c
Men's $3.50 Shoes now.....	$3.00
Ladies' Best Shoes now.....	2 69
Ladies' $2.00 Shoes now.....	1.60
Best 6c Calico at per yd.....	3 1/2c

Visit our Great Cloak & Fur Department Friday and Saturday—Special Display.

Send your name and address and we will mail to you Free our complete price list and a McCall Fashion Sheet.....

ALLMAN'S, The Big Store, PLYMOUTH, IND.

The Store That Does as It Advertises.